PRAYER: UNREACHED PEOPLE GROUP

Rabari (Hindu traditions)
India

Rabari means outsiders. This is because of their occupation. Rabari's main business used to be raising livestock. These livestock need lots of space and the people have lived outside the villages. At present, the Rabari have settled down in their original communities, and are engaging in commerce and agriculture. Rabari are the remnant of Huns, who invaded India in the fifth century AD. Pray the Rabari community will live in harmony with their neighbors, and be able to properly provide for their families. Pray the followers of Christ that will soon emerge from the Rabari community will be hungry to learn and practice the fundamentals of the faith, being zealous to follow Christ.
