PRAYER: UNREACHED PEOPLE GROUP

Lao Phuan
Laos

The Lao people are renowned for being gentle, friendly and peace-loving. Their communities revolve around close-knit family ties. They have a high birth rate, perhaps because of how they value families. The ancestors of these people are believed to have migrated southward from China approximately 1,000 years ago. Not wanting to acknowledge the reality of sin and the need for forgiveness of sin is sometimes an obstacle to accepting the Gospel message. Pray the Lao believers will grow strong in numbers and maturity, that they become able to effectively carry the Gospel message to their own people.
